STUDENT GEOLOGICAL CONFERENCE

29th of May 2024 Brno

THE DEPARTMENT OF GEOLOGICAL SCIENCES OF THE FACULTY OF SCIENCE, MASARYK UNIVERSITY ORGANIZES THE STUDENT GEOLOGICAL CONFERENCE ON 29th of May 2024

We thank all the participants who registered for the Student Geology Conference, which will be held on 29th of May 2024 at the Institute of Geological Sciences, Science Faculty of Masaryk University. The student geological conference is organized for all geology students from the Czech Republic and abroad.

The mission of the conference is to enable students to present and share the results of their bachelor's, master's or PhD theses with their colleagues in the field.

We remind you that the date for submitting abstracts for lectures is 15th of April 2024.

On Wednesday, 29th of May, SGC will take place in building 3 in classroom G1. Lectures will be held in several blocks in the form of a maximum of 15-minute presentations (10-minute lecture + 5-minute discussion). An international expert jury will be present at the lectures, which after the end will evaluate and award the best contributions of the conference with excellent prizes.

ABSTRACTS

Please send abstracts by 15th of April to e-mail studkonf@sci.muni.cz. On the conference website you will find the necessary information and abstract templates, which please strictly follow. Abstracts will later be part of the conference Book of abstracts.
